- healing as soft as spring -

Christian Science doesn't heal reality. Reality is whole.

God is universal Principle, manifest in reality. This makes healing 'impossible' because God never falls below the standard of perfection or recognizes the existence of anything contrary that would require healing.

If sickness were a part of the divine reality, God would be its author, and it would be futile for one to attempt to heal it - to overthrow a work of God - but healing happens in our time as it always has and ever will, when we follow divine Mind into its native sphere where the concept of healing no longer applies and the resulting blessings actually precede the human need for them.

Christian Science is a healer in the sense that it brings one into harmony with God, with the divine reality. Christian Science thus becomes a portal for discerning the reality of our being in all its quality.

On this platform Christian Science extends an invitation to us all to celebrate the divine quality that is the light of the world. It invites us to 'move' with the divine; to 'dance' with God in our living - to follow the leading of Love into the land of Spirit.

On this platform a scientifically determined way unfolds for looking at the Lord's Prayer

(see: Scientific Lord's Prayer)

Here begins the process that we call healing.

Listen to Beethoven's Ode to Joy \(PM4\)

The "Ode to Joy" is a poem by Friedrich Schiller set to music by Ludwig van Beethoven as a choral piece for the final movement of his last symphony (Beethoven's 9th Symphony) which he composed while being totally deaf - a rapture of the soul, and the human spirit centered on a discovered truth.

The above link is to a performance of the "ode to Joy," not by professional singers and musicians, but by a group of young people who are joining hands across the world for the healing of civilization, culturally, politically, scientifically, and spiritually. The performance was given in Berlin, Germany, on March 23, 2010 by the LaRouche Youth Movement.

The proposition of the science of Christianity is:

- that God is Mind - divine Principle - the creative and enabling impetus; the all-ennobling, enriching, beautifying, empowering, protecting, producing, healing, freeing, enlightening, expanding, and harmonizing presence that is power - divine Truth;
- that God is Spirit - divine Soul - the infinite stage of progress where the harmonizing divine Spirit that is Love enable wisdom, purity, loving, strength, holiness, spiritual understanding, spiritual power, and unity without distance;
- that God is Love - divine Life - that enables generosity, humanity, honesty, affection, compassion, hope, faith, kindness, temperance - opening the gates to heaven, harmony, and all good.

These are all aspects of the holy sacrament of God being with us, or Christian Science being understood. With these, the sacrament unfolds as Truth (reality) being acknowledged. If elements of our sacrament are missing, such as generosity, humanity, honesty, and so on, there is something spiritually lacking in our experience and life is correspondingly emptier than it could be.

- To the degree to which the sacrament unfolds, holiness becomes wholeness. Wholeness is manifest in health. It is manifest in life as boundless being.
- In divine Science, God - Mind, Principle, Truth, Live, Soul, Love, Spirit - and humanity are understood as One (Principle and its idea is One) - one in quality and in being, though individual in action and infinite in scope - and this One (not one of a series) is God.
- Are we willing to think of the world in these terms? Christian Science is not a dweller apart, but a divine revelation that brings spiritual reality into our daily living, uplifting our world and civilization at large. The Nation then becomes a reflection of Soul, Science of Truth, Economics of Love, and Empire of dark emptiness.

on the crucial (1894) building effort.

Is the Pastor Emeritus dead? - The estoppels-clause
court case against the Mother Church of Christ,
Scientist, unfolding to annul its existence, its Branch
Churches, its Church Manual, and its worldwide
Membership.

In 1897 a mother wrote of a healing she had witnessed on the day that Mary Baker Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, had invited her followers to visit her at her Pleasant View homestead near Concord N.H..

It was Independence Day. The mother and her children had traveled all the way from Kansas City for this rare event that promised to become a day of celebration. For the seven-year-old daughter, however, it became a day of agony. She suffered severely from a boil on her head. The mother tells us what happened that day after the formal address was completed and Mary Baker Eddy received her visitors on her porch.

"I wish I could make the world know what I saw when Mrs. Eddy looked at those children," the mother wrote later. "It was a revelation to me. I saw for the first time the real Mother-Love... As I turned in the procession and walked towards the line of trees in the front of the yard, there was a bird sitting on the limb of a tree, and I saw the same Love poured out on that bird that I had seen flow from Mrs. Eddy to my children. I looked down at the grass and the flowers and there was the same Love resting on them. It is difficult for me to put into words what I saw. This Love was everywhere, like the light, but it was divine, not mere human affection... I looked at the people milling around on the lawn and I saw it poured out on them. I thought of the various discords in the field, and I saw, for the first time, the absolute unreality of everything but this infinite Love. It was not only everywhere present, like the light, but it was an intelligent presence that spoke to me, and I found myself weeping as I walked back and forth under the trees and saying out loud, 'Why did I never know you before?' 'Why have I not known you always?' When we got back to the hotel, there was no boil on my child's head."*

Christian Science is a miraculous healer. Still its process is natural. It is as soft and natural as the dawn of spring. Its process reflects the Principle of Universal Love, or divine Love. The spirit of its healing reflects the harmonizing Spirit that is God reflected in the universe and man. Its impetus is divine Mind; its beauty the light of Soul; its power is Truth; its quality is Life.
